TUNNELING
HALEAKALATrying to Get More Water for the Ranches.NEWS NOTES OF
MAUI'S FAIR ISLENegro Boy Arrested—Another
Paper for Wailuku—Labor of the Blacks.

WAILUKU, Maui, May 11.—The News says: The News is indebted to Mr. Carl Waldeyer, an experienced California gravel miner, for some interesting notes relative to the possibility of developing water for the use of cattle ranches by tunneling into the sides of Haleakala.

At the request of Dr. Raymond. Mr. Waldeyer recently spent several days at Kahikinui ranch, examining the system of tunnels already inaugurated. Some water has been developed, but it is too soon yet to tell whether the water is seepage from the recent heavy rains, or whether it is a permanent flow.

Mr. Waldeyer, however, states from his observation that he feels convinced that there are layers of impervious strata near enough the surface to be reached by an intelligent construction of lateral tunnels. The water carried by these strata never comes to the surface, but finds its way to the sea underground. Just how a long dry spell would affect these subterranean streams is a problem which must be solved by the test of actual experiment, but Mr. Waldeyer is inclined to the belief, from his recent observations, that permanent water can be obtained in limited quantities, which would, however, be amply sufficient for stock purposes.

Dr. Raymond deserves credit for his experiments in this direction, and if they prove successful, which Mr. Waldeyer does not seem to doubt, it will be only a question of time till the side of Haleakala will be honeycombed with water-bearing tunnels. These tunnels will have to be so located as to tap the surface of impervious strata, which carry permanent water, and a system of cross tunnels run so as to catch all the water of the strata. This may be only a small amount in each tunnel, but it would require only a permanent flow of a few miners' inches of water to amply supply a stock ranch.

Most of the ranches, notably Kahikinui, extended from top of Haleakala to the sea, and while the best pasturage is high up on the mountain side, stock have to travel down to near sea level for water. A successful solution of the tunnel proposition will mean thousands of dollars to the stock raisers, and much is hoped from the experiments being made by Dr. Raymond.

Other stock raisers, notably Colonel Cornwell, have employed Mr. Waldeyer to expert their ranches, with a view of developing water, and great interest is felt in the result.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From practical tests it seems that the plantations will not be able to import a desirable class of negro laborers in sufficient quantities to answer their needs. Porto Rican labor seems more available, and the present indications are that an abundance of that class of labor will soon be available to the exclusion of much of the worthless labor now on the islands.

William Sharp, a negro boy from Alabama, was arrested for stealing fifty cents worth of pork at Camp 5 Store, Spreckelsville, and was convicted of the theft by Judge McKay of the District Court at Wailuku this week.

It is currently rumored that there is a movement on foot to start another newspaper in Wailuku. The News extends the glad hand to its prospective hated rival.

The Pala plantation is putting up a large corrugated iron workshop furnished to date, near the Pala mill.

W. E. Shaw, the Nahu cane planter, was a visitor to Wailuku this week. He reports that it is unusually hot and dry on east Maui.

W. O. Smith of Honolulu was a guest of the "Maui" this week, having come over on the Kinau, returning to Honolulu by Thursday's Mauna Loa.

Captain Keola is rapidly recovering from the injuries which he recently received in an altercation with an unregenerate bronco. He now rides a meek looking bay with a limp tail.

Dr. Raymond, who by the way, is developing into a full-fledged vaquero, came down from Kahikinui ranch on Thursday evening, and reports everything flourishing up in the woods.

Senator H. P. Baldwin came over on Tuesday's Kinau and spent Wednesday inspecting the "Big Four" plantations, returning to Honolulu on Thursday's Mauna Loa to assist at the extra session.

Andrew Fairley, former water luna at Wailuku, but recently of Puna plantation, Hawaii, is a guest at Schrader's new hotel. His health was quite impaired, and he very sensibly came to Wailuku to recuperate.

Mr. Carl Waldeyer, who is acquiring a reputation as an expert on water tunnels, recently spent several days at Kahikinui ranch, investigating tunnel proposition at the ranch, which will develop an increased supply of water.

Awes Them Over the Wire.

The manifold uses to which the telephone may be put are well illustrated in the domestic arrangements of a prominent young Philadelphia lawyer.

He is the father of two boys, aged four and six, who, it is said, could give Helen's babies of revered memory cards and spades and beat them at their own game. The mother has reached the stage where she can no longer do anything with them; but for their father they have a profound respect, not unmixed with awe. "When your father comes home you shall have a good whipping," has been an expression of almost daily occurrence. This state of affairs, however, was not very pleasant for the father, who felt a hesitancy about punishing the youngsters for their misdeeds during his absence. Finally the mother hit upon another plan, which is now in active operation. There is a telephone in the house, and the father, who is called to the phone, the offense is explained, and the youngster receives a reprimand over the wire, the receiver being held to his ear. The boys recognize the state of terror, and the mystery of it all strikes force to their hearts.

A BALD NEWSPAPER MAN.

Getting a New Crop of Hair and Has No More Dandruff.

Everybody in the Northwest knows Col. Daniel Searles, the veteran journalist and publisher of Butte. Jan. 10, 1900, the Colonel writes: "I used a couple of bottles of Newbro's Herpicide with marvelous results. The dandruff disappeared, a crop of new hair has taken root and the bald spot is rapidly being covered." Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ that digs up the scalp in scales as it burrows its way to the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide.

THE DRAMA ON A PLANTATION

Amateur Actors Play for Sweet
Charity's Sake at Kohala.

KOHALA PLANTATION, Hawaii, May 10.—A dramatic entertainment was given in Kohala Social Hall on Saturday, the 4th inst., which had for its object the purchasing of false hands for a native who had lost both his own in an unfortunate accident. The first part of the program was a one-act farce by Alfred Bunn, entitled "My Neighbor's Wife," with the following cast:

Mr. Somerton, an artist..... Mr. T. C. Paetow
Timothy Brown, a city broker..... D. Shanks
Jonathan Smith, a tailor..... H. P. King
Mrs. Somerton..... Miss Maud Wight
Mrs. Brown, Timothy Brown's wife.....
Miss Smith, Jonathan Smith's wife.....
Mrs. Smith, Jonathan Smith's wife.....
Miss Evelyn Van Deerlin

In the interval which followed a vocal solo by Mrs. John Hind and a trio by Mesdames Hind, Bond and Austin were beautifully sung and heartily encored. Then followed the second play, also a one-act farce, entitled "Lend Me Five Shillings," with the cast, as follows:

Mr. Goughly..... Mr. H. P. King
Captain Phobbs..... Mr. F. C. Paetow
Captain Spruce..... Mr. E. E. Olding
Mr. Moreland.....
Mr. J. Hall
Sam, a waiter..... David Shanks
Mrs. Major Phobbs.....
Mrs. Captain Phobbs.....
Miss Maud Wight

The plays were so well rendered and free from the amusing hitches, one almost always expects in amateur acting, that scarcely one player could be singled out. Perhaps the "make up" of Messrs. King and Shanks added somewhat to their fame. It took the audience some time to realize that the corpulent, be-whiskered Adonises were the slim, tall young men so well known in Kohala. Miss Maud Wight's acting was good indeed. She certainly can portray a dignified matron besides one with a keen sense of humor, and created much amusement in her treatment of the amorous Brown and Smith. The Misses Van Deerlin did so well and looked so charming that it seemed as if their errand husbands did not deserve the forgiveness so freely extended in the end.

In the second play Messrs. King and Shanks kept up their good work, whilst Mr. Paetow seemed to have so warmed up as to excel himself. He looked and acted the choleric, gouty Army captain to the letter. Mrs. E. E. Olding, a very youthful and pretty widow with the serious duty of looking after her flitting sister-in-law—and rather inclined to stir up hearts herself—grasped perfectly both the grave and gay demanded of her. The other parts taken by Mr. Hall and Mr. E. E. Olding, while not so prominent, were so well done as to entitle them to more important parts in future. Altogether the large audience felt highly pleased, and the actors must feel encouraged—not only by the good opinions won, but by the thought, "It is well to do so much for charity."

Tourists and visitors should not fail to take a ride on the Pacific Heights Electric Railway. Unsurpassed view of ocean, mountain and valley, and the stretched-out city. Round trip, 10c.
